Vocabulary Story

        Once upon a time in a land not too far from St. Therese, there was a girl named Sara Glam. Sara dreamed of being a ==celebrity==, but her father was poor. Sara worked every day to save up money to go to Hollywood. During the week she worked for a lawyer who was ==counsel== on many cases. On the weekend she worked as a farmer. Students would visit the farm and she would ==demonstrate== how to milk that cows. Sara never gave up on her dream of becoming a celebrity (no matter how many cows she had to milk). One day Sara counted her money and realized she had enough to go to Hollywood. She packed a suitcase and headed to Hollywood. It was not easy to become famous, but after many auditions she finally landed a movie role! Sara is now a celebrity!

Figurative Language Sentences

*Note: you can use variations of the word if it works better in your sentence. I.e. in #3 I used demonstration instead of demonstrate. This works for the story option too.

1. The ==celebrity== was as mean as a bear coming out of hibernation. (simile)
2. The ==counsel's== office was a pig pen. (metaphor)
3. The ==demonstration== took 100 hours! (hyperbole)
